E. CHIEF SALVATORE'S REPORT

The Incident Analysis's Report was handed out for December.

On December 17th the Cromwell Police and Fire Departments held the second annual Adopt a Family Program. It was very successful; more than enough money was collected to make two families very happy. The Chief gave kudos to the following members of the Cromwell Police Department, Lori McKnight in the Records Division, Officers Bill Kogut and Dave Ellison, Detective Denise LaMontagne and Captain Nelson, as well as the Cromwell Fire Department, the Town of Portland and the City of Middletown for making the program such a success.

Recruit McCarter continues to do well at the Academy. He will be graduating shortly.

Citizens Bank at Cromwell Square was robbed on Monday night. The Chief commended Captain Nelson, who at the time was acting Sergeant, due to Sgt. Lunt's retirement, Officers Cunningham and Penn and Dispatcher Renee Bruscia for the quick response, which resulted in the robbers capture and more than $2400 being returned to Citizen's Bank.

The Sergeant's written exam will be given on February 3rd and the Oral Board will be on February 7th. Hopefully the new sergeant will be promoted by the middle or end of February.
