E. CHIEF SALVATORE'S REPORT

Incident Analyst Reports for May and June were distributed. A copy is attached to minutes.

Recruit Dorais graduates from the Academy on July 25th; he will then receive twelve weeks of Field Training. Officer McCarter completed the FTO Program.

The Buick Championship was uneventful from the Cromwell Police Department's point of view. There was an issue with portable billboards on Main Street that was resolved with the assistance of the Zoning Compliance Officer.

The Riverport Festival is forward. This year the Festival will run for three days some activities will be held on the 14th and the 15th. The main day of the Festival including the Firework Display will be Saturday the 16th.

Chief Salvatore recommended that sometime in the future if the issue is brought before the Board, they should look favorably on abandoning Hammerhead Place in its entirety since the Town already turned half of the road over to the developer.

At the request of Commissioner Johnson, Chief Salvatore addressed Mr. Selsky's issue that he spoke about under Citizens Comment.
