E. CHIEF SALVATORE'S REPORT

Incident Analyst Reports were distributed for the month of December.

The department continues to experience unusual types of time-consuming incidents. Chief Salvatore stated that he couldn't say enough about the Officers outstanding job especially with these types of unusual incidents. Detective Officer Vandersloot did an outstanding job dealing with the matter of School Bus for Children with Special Needs. Saturday they dealt with the car-jacking incident that started in Hartford and again they did an outstanding job.

Last Saturday the 2006 fall the cruiser event was held at Stop and Shop. Chief Salvatore couldn't say enough about the department's staff, specifically Lori McKnight who put the programs together. A trailer load and van load of food was turned over to the Cromwell Food Bank in addition to $502.45 that was collected that day. Saturday evening the Adopt a Family event was held. Between the Cromwell Fire and Police Departments the donations totaled almost $4,000. They were able to adopt five families. The program was huge success and they are looking forward to doing it again next year.

The Department received a $2,000 donation for Officer Safety Equipment from Wal-Mart. The donation will be used to purchase two additional tasers.
