

American Red Cross

Be there when your neighbors need you most

In your community:

Join our Disaster Action Team and be first line to provide care, comfort, and compassion to those effected by local disaster such as home fires.

From home:

Be a Duty Officer. If you have 4 hours a week, a phone and computer you can dispatch Red Cross volunteers who meet with victims of home fires, and other disasters, to provide temporary relief such as funds for a hotel room, food, and clothing
