PRESS RELEASE

TOWN OF CROMWELL PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

UPDATE / Storm Clean-Up

Due to the recent storms, the Department of Public Works will be picking up brush/tree limbs for its residents. Pick-up is scheduled to begin on Monday, March 19, 2018.

Pick-up will start at the Connecticut River and continue westward through town until each street in Cromwell has been passed once. Storm debris is to be stacked/bundled in 4' lengths and placed at the edge of the resident's property with the "butt end" of branches facing the curb. Branches/limbs are not to exceed 8" in diameter.

In addition to the curbside pick-up, Town Residents may bring debris from the storm at no charge to the Cromwell Transfer Station on County Line Road during normal operating hours of 8:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M. on Tuesdays, Thursdays & Saturdays. (NO CONTRACTORS)

The Town Manager, Director of Public Works and Town crews would like to thank residents for their cooperation, patience and assistance during the storm and it's clean up.
