Disclosure and Release Clause

The animal that you are applying for, to our knowledge, may not have been tested or vaccinated against any disease, including rabies, which can be transmitted to humans. Under Connecticut General Statute 22-332(b) every effort is made by our staff to match animals to proper homes and filing an application does in no way guarantee that you will be approved for any animal. Your application may be denied for any reasonable cause. Cromwell Animal Control makes no claims as to the health, temperament or mental position of any of its animals. Some animals change when brought out of the shelter environment and into its new environment. Due care should be taken with any new animals in their new homes.

I, (applicant) _____, (co-applicant) _____

To the best of my knowledge, have not made any false statements in filing this application for adoption of a pet from Cromwell Animal Control. I have fully read and understand the above statement as well as all questions.
